FOREWORD by Mr. M. D. SCHAFFNER, Chairman of the Yorkshire T.T.A.

It was with great pleasure that I accepted the invitation of the Barnsley Table Tennis League to write a foreword to the handbook for the coming season. There has always been a strong link between the Barnsley League and the Yorkshire Association, strengthened in particular by the active assistance rendered to the County body on its Executive Committee by well known Barnsley officials. It is my earnest hope that the relationship thus created will always remain at the highest level. Let us endeavour at all times to work together in a common purpose for the advancement of Yorkshire table tennis throughout the County. Yorkshire youth has in recent months deservedly earned the warmest admiration of the whole country. We too can do our part to maintain and indeed further the reputation so proudly won.

I trust that the coming season will provide many happy hours of table tennis and that the efforts of the Barnsley League will be crowned with success.

A MESSAGE FROM JACK CARRINGTON.

Although my ardent pursuit of the little white ball takes me all over England—indeed all over Europe—I have always had a soft spot for Yorkshire table tennis, having been born within the shadow of York Minster.

And in all the widening prospect of Yorkshire table tennis, Barnsley has a special claim to my interest, because it was the first Yorkshire centre to invite me to bring my young protegee, Johnny Leach to play during our barnstorming tour, after we were demobbed.

That was in season 1946-47; both on that occasion and in the following year when I came with Hymie Lurie, I came away with a deep impression of Barnsley friendliness and hospitality.

Yorkshire has already thrown up a wonderful young player in Brian Kennedy—he will need a partner to support him in the County team and I am sincerely hoping it can be a lad from Barnsley before long. I am quite certain that if such a lad appears, he will receive every possible encouragement from Frank Walker and the rest of the unselfish “senior statesmen” of the League.

Johnny Leach, now World Champion, hopes to come back with me this year to Barnsley: whether or not this proves possible to arrange, we send you our sincere wishes for success, and lots of fun and good exercise on the green table.
